

When The Lovelight Starts Shining Through His Eyes

Dusty Springfield

He gave me the eye but I just passed him by
I treated him unkind but he didn't seem to mind
I told him be on his way and not a word did he say
He just stood there kind of bored, what am I acting for?
When the love light starts shining through his eyes
Made me realize I should apologise
And when he placed a kiss upon my face
Then I knew, oh baby I knew that he'd won my heart
So I quickly apologized
Hopin' he hadn't changed his mind
And not a word did he say
So I turned to walk away
When the love light starts shining through his eyes
Made me realize all he felt inside
And when he placed a kiss upon my lips
Then I knew, oh baby I knew that he'd won my heart, oh yeah
Then he asked could he walk my way
I hoped sweet things he'd say
Then he smiled a kind of nice
As he held my hand kind of tight
When the love light starts shining through his eyes
Made me realize all that he felt inside
And when he placed a kiss upon my face
Then I knew, oh baby I knew a that he'd won my heart, oh yeah
When the love light starts shining through his eyes
Made me realize all I felt inside
And when he placed a kiss upon my face
Then I knew, oh, baby, I knew a that he'd won my heart, oh yeah
That he'd won my heart
