Be The Change

Sebastian Demrey

Open your eyes up people, and take a good look around,
Catch the tears fillin up all those cracks in the ground.
Turn off you televisions; leave your picture perfect neighborhoods
A lot of folks out there aint doing so good,
To many of us left out in the coldNo invitations given, no welcome mats unrolled,
But you can, be the change you wanna see.
Be the hope to those whose lives are far from easy.
Reach out and lend a hand, share everything you can,
And be the change, be the change.Carry the world on your shoulders, for a little while,
Put on someone else shoes, and walk around.
So many cups a runneth over, while so many goin dry
The grass aint always green on the other side.
Theres still a lot of work to be done,
A lot of wrongs to right, a lot of battles to be won.If you can be the change you wanna see,
Be the hope to those who lives are far from easy.
Reach out and lend a hand, share everything you can,
And be the change, be the change.Reach out and lend a hand, share everything you can
And be the change, be the change.
Be the change.
Be the change.
Be the change
