Alimony Blues

Al Dexter

It's a cold-blooded world
When a man has to pawn his shoes
It's a cold-blooded world
When a man has to pawn his shoes
That's the fix I'm in today
I swear I've been abusedYes, the woman is a devil
She will trick you if she can
Yes, the woman is a devil
She will trick you if she can
She will tell you that she loves you
And work out some other planGot those alimony blues
And I sure got to pay some dues
Got those alimony blues
And I sure got to pay some dues
And if I run short of cash
It's the road camp, I've got to choose
