

It Happens Every Time

Gareth Gates

Can you hear the music playing
Can you feel the rhythm swaying
This is the sound of dreams come true
And I can promise you that
You are the one and only
And I'm the lost and lonely
We're the perfect dream come true And I can promise you that
I hear real silly love songs in my heart
It happens every time when I see you
It happens every time when I think of you
It happens every time always magic when we meet
Baby, down on Dream Street Let me take you back the ?
Walking down my hometown's streets, girl
You make me feel I'm so alive Oh I promise you that
I hear real silly love songs in my heart
It happens every time when I see you
It happens every time when I think of you
It happens every time always magic when we meet
Baby, down on Dream Street When I close my eyes, there're angels all around
It happens every time when I see you
It happens every time It happens every time when I see you
It happens every time when I think of you
It happens every time always magic when we meet
Baby, down on Dream Street
We'll see you
It happens every time always magic when we meet
Baby, down on Dream Street
