

Trainwreck of Emotion

Lorrie Morgan

I can see it all so clearly as I'm lookin' back
I was headed down the wrong way on a one-way track
There must be a million chances that a fool could take
Well, this fool took every one and never hit the brakes I'm lyin' in the rubble cinder, smoke and ash
My heart still poundin' from the impact of the crash
I can see tomorrow's headlines, 'Heartbroke from blind devotion'
Just another victim of a trainwreck of emotion We were burnin' like a furnace as he poured on the coal
Drive wheel a churnin', I mean love was on a roll
Faster and faster I swear we left the ground
But when that smoke had cleared he was nowhere around I'm lyin' in the rubble cinder, smoke and ash
My heart still poundin' from the impact of the crash
I can see tomorrow's headlines, 'Heartbroke from blind devotion'
Just another victim of a trainwreck of emotion Rumors are flyin' about how our love had failed
But I know it was him that pulled the switch
And left me derailed I'm lyin' in the rubble cinder, smoke and ash
My heart still poundin' from the impact of the crash
I can see tomorrow's headlines, 'Heartbroke from blind devotion'
Just another victim of a trainwreck of emotion
Just one more victim of a trainwreck of emotion Trainwreck of emotion, trainwreck of emotion
