

Don't Wanna Be Alone

Simon Curtis

They say that love is a game
Only played by the dumbest of fools
That the feeling's elusive
And what can you do with a ruse?"Oh. Oh. Ooh, ooh, ohh" They say that wanting a heart
Is nothing like what people believe
And to give it away
Is something you don't want to need" Oh. Oh. Ooh, ooh, ohh" Listen to me
I don't wanna be alone
I'm gonna find someone
I swear the fire will never grow cold I get scared sometimes
When I see all the connections happening around me
That fate will evade me
That time will betray me
That future I just don't want to see" Oh. Ooh, ooh, ohh" Don't wanna be that synapse swerve that missed the nerve
And now is dead for eternity Listen to me
I don't wanna be alone
I'm gonna find someone
I swear the fire will never grow cold Listen to me
I'm not gonna be alone
I'm gonna find someone
I swear the fire will never grow cold I don't wanna be
I'm not gonna be
I don't wanna be
I'm not gonna be
Lonely anymore
Not gonna be lonely anymore
Don't wanna be lonely anymore
