

Nothing Like a Friend

Richard Hawley

"Nothing Like A Friend" And in the end, the things that hold you in
Are gossamer thin, disappeared with the wind Will these city streets remember us? We walked them long ago
Blown apart by a bitter wind that took us far from home
And in the end, it's gossamer thin Ah, but then again,
There's nothing like a friend
Who can drive you 'round the bend,
We'll be lovers 'til the end Will these city streets remember us? We walked them long ago
Blown apart by a bitter wind that took us far from home
And in the end, it's gossamer thin
And in the end, there's nothing like a friend
Will these city streets remember us? We walked them long ago
Blown apart by a bitter wind that took us far from home
And in the end, it's gossamer thin
And in the end, there's nothing like a friend
