She Cried

Midge Ure

She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian waysShe promised to a stranger, arranger kisses
She, torn between her heart and the others' wishes
Try to please them, try to reasonShe cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian waysShe tries to understand what her father preaches
She wants to live the life that her new world teaches
Try to tell them what she felt thenShe cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian waysTry to tell them what she felt thenShe cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian waysShe cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian waysShe cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
She cried
The tears that fell were from Asian ways
