Subway Apathy

Forgotten Tomb

As a desolated subway
As an empty city street
It takes me a way
Towards oceans of concreteA grey walk into the void
Through faceless humans
Nauseating melancholy
Suburban distressLifeless as your jaded eyes...Pitch black misery
Dead leaves in rainy afternoons
Cold - Cold sidewalks at night
Frozen by bleak neon lightsLifeless asy our jaded eyesOur sight is broken by a train
This time I know it will be at last one
A reflection of the subway inside your eyes
Waiting for the last train of this endless nightLifeless as your jaded eyes...To fade into the dark
To run away towards another
Grey - Another greay suicidal day
Subway Apathy crawls in meSubway Apathy crawls in meBlackness
Pale grey walls
Dark landscapes of iron
Deep inside my soul
