

Suburban King

Pat Benatar

The alarm clock rings but you don't move
But the wife gets up and puts on her uniform
 You hear her in the bathroom
'Cause she's got that nagging cough
 You put your head under the pillow
 To forget you've been laid off
 Suburban king
 Suburban king
 You had it printed on your van
 'Cause it had a pretty ring
 Suburban king
 The union man said you'd be recalled
 But the company up and moved to Taiwan
 You counted on the pension plan
 But you were out of luck
 The union says you only qualify
 For twenty five bucks
 Suburban king
 Suburban king
 You had it printed on your van
 'Cause it had a pretty ring
 Suburban king
 Suburban king
 Your American dream didn't mean a thing
 Suburban king
