

She Was My Dresden

Miles Kurosky

please say my name just to hear it from your whispering mouth sends me to the moonhow silver sweet a voice that makes the heavens drowsy and weak makes no sound for me. it's an empty vessel lost at seaold hollywood could not dream up a tale so tragic and if i could, i'd untie you from tracks forgotten poison lips, box office slips, we're a flop brazen crimes, a heist for you the earth's rotation tooan untimely frost it seems i'll have to pull a romeo for you star-crossed and doomeddon't ask me why i told you i would do anything for you. saw myself in twoda-da-da-da darling are you past waking up because you show no interest, love? i'd pull this plug for you tonight just give me a sign put your name on the dotted lineold hollywood could not dream up a tale so tragic
and if i could, i'd untie you from tracks forgotten
the captions read, "we're through"please send me to the moon
