

Wings

Sarah Buxton

Love can be crazy
And magical things it can do
The places that it takes you to
I never thought that it was true 'Til you saw me standing
Facing the walls that can't climb
You lifting me up just in time
It's so perfect and divine You give me wings
So I can fly at least that's how it seems
Like angels do when dancing in the dream
There's no fear or doubt up here in the clouds
'Cause you give me wings I'm only human
And I do the best I can do
Sometimes I fight and I lose
When I can't pull myself through, you do You give me wings
So I can fly at least that's how it seems
Like angels do when dancing in the dream
There's no fear or doubt up here in the clouds You take me high
Higher than the struggles in this life
And where I used to stumble, now I rise
Above it all like I can never fall
'Cause you give me wings I'm not an angel but baby, understand
When I get around you, I feel like I am
I ain't running any longer, your love makes me stronger
Nothing is impossible anymore, anymore You give me wings
So I can fly at least that's how it seems
Like angels do when dancing in the dream
There's no fear or doubt up here in the clouds 'Cause you take me high
Higher than the struggles in this life
And where I used to stumble, now I rise
Above it all like I can never fall
'Cause you give me wings
You give me wings, you give me wings
