

Purpose In Your Storm

Michelle Williams

You can make it, stop complainin', there's a purpose for your life
Mama's been where you goin', it's gonna be alright, yes
He'll never put more on you then you can bear
It's temporary, it's gonna get better, yes it will, oh babe
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Purpose in your storm

Mark my word, keep on livin', I must have heard this a thousand times
Daddy told me things will happen, go on ahead and cry
Whoever said it would be easy, walking the street called life, yes
You can make, you'll survive it , yes you will
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Say, la la la la la, lay, la la la la la
La la la la la, la la la la la, yeah
Purpose in your storm
Say, la la la la la, lay, la la la la la
La la la la la, la la la la la, yeah
Purpose in your storm
(Say la, oh my I get excited)

There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
(He won't leave you, you're never alone)
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm

Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
Soon you'll discover, peace like a river when the rain clouds form
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
There is a light that's shinin' and soon the dawn will come
You'll find a purpose, purpose in your storm
