

God Of Ruin

Witherscape

so it has become ever clear in a jaded lifetime he is the chosen one body pure and never poisoned the ritual's begun brought to life in the horrid forthright sharpened sense tonight bless the steel for the ceremony's knell he is brought to another world where the fearless lie venture slow the bleak will always fade shadows grin all around the fright many tortured souls alive in the wasteland of his mind before her, he kneels embrace the call for now he can't deny her with their lives, the gifts come one by one ritual from hell to bring him higher lurking death behind the howling cries the morbid yearning for a glimpse now falls through the guidance of time cold stare bereaves within the mad beast not one survivor for her to gain precision cutting with a choir and taste the flesh to ease the pain hold the violent rage with bleeding hands
for the merciful one
and all the glories will shine for evermore
open the sky, blood rains down
scent of burning flesh
scent of burning flesh
the god of ruin has claimed the essence pure in lust divine
stalking power for the satisfied calling out her name angel of the night of dark deception the devil's haunting for a cruel heart cold stare bereaves within the mad beast not one survivor for her to gain
and taste the flesh to ease the pain hold the violent rage

scent of burning flesh
stalking power for the satisfied calling out her name
angel of the night of dark deception
the devil's haunting for a cruel heart
