

One Strike

All Saints

[Verse 1]

Stone cold

You wake me when the phone vibrates

Your voice sounds dulled, but loud enough to hear you

Distant, echoes of my heart unbreak

Silently now, I'm waiting for this storm to come

I'm waiting for this this storm to come

Listen to you load that gun

I'm waiting for this storm to come[Chorus]

And with one strike

My world lights up a fire

Call it a sign

Don't need hindsight

I'll make my emotions clear

And then disappear

With one strike

Mmm, one strike[Verse 2]

Shattered, pieces of your words take aim

Your poisoned tongue

But I don't want to believe you

Torn up, stitches of my own heart ache

Violently numb, I'm ready for this storm to come

I'm ready for the storm to come

Listen to you load that gun

I'm ready for the storm come[Chorus]

And with one strike

My world lights up a fire

Call it a sign

Don't need hindsight

I'll make my emotions clear

And then disappear

And with one strike

My world lights up a fire

Call it a sign

Don't need hindsight

I'll make my emotions clear

And then disappear

With one strike

One strike

One strike
One strike[Bridge with outro in background]
I don't want to stay, time to go
I don't want to be in this home
Broken promises, time to leave
I had everything that you needed
I don't want to stay, time to go
I don't want to be in this home
Broken promises, time to leave
I had everything that you needed[Chorus]
And with one strike
My world lights up a fire
Call it a sign
Don't need hindsight
I'll make my emotions clear
And then disappear
And with one strike
Mmm, one strike[Outro]
Oh-oh
Why'd you go lie?
Oh-oh
Why, oh, why?
Oh-oh
Watch you go by
Oh-oh
My, oh, my
