

Can't Help It

Jon B

Shoulda seen it from the get go, you were on some shit
No other girl has ever gotten under my skin, yeah no
Girl why you got and attitude, I was at the mall for you
Thinking it was all good playing myself? Oh yeahBaby sometimes, you act so perfect to me
You act sometimes like an angel
That's the part that hurts me most
Wonder it this is meant to be
No other love, gotta stop loving youCan't help it
(I can't help the way I feel)
Can't help it
(I said I can't help the way I love you girl)Can't help it
(Yeah said I can't help the way I feel)
Can't help it
(Tell me what I gotta do, no, no I can't help it)Girl you got me waking up at night
Sitting up turn on the morning light sweating
'Cause I dream that you were fucking my friend, oh, oh no
I don't choose to think the way I do, I can't get away from you
Girl I hate the way you're messing with my headOh baby sometimes you act so perfect to me
You act sometimes like an angel
And that's the part that hurts me most
Wonder it this is meant to be
No other love, I gotta stop loving youCan't help it
(I can't help the way I feel)
Can't help it
(What I gotta do to please you baby)I can't help it
(Stuck between a rock and a hard place, baby)
I can't help it
(No no, I can't help it)What if I change my mind is it gonna be right this time?
Are you still gonna be around for me, baby?
Tell me, tell me baby, tired of being your fool
Can't help myself with you, can't help myself, my selfCan't help it, can't help it
(Help the way I feel for you)
Can't help it
(I feel, I feel for you, baby)
Can't help it
(I can't help the way)
No no I can't help itJust wanna get away
(Just can't help the way)
(I feel for you, I just can't help it)

Can't help it
(Oh, I wish my mind would quit)
Can't help it
(With thoughts of you fucking around on me, baby)Can't help it
(What if I changed my mind?)
Can't help it
(What if I changed my mind?)
Can't help it
