Jacob Plant

(Reflections of us)

That girl I used to know, where did she go, maybe I chased her away (Reflections of us)

That man I used to be no longer seen, maybe he wasted away (Reflections of us)

It's only now I can see what we became (Reflections of us)

Been over it now but I still can't breathe your name (Reflections of us)(Reflections)Yo, (reflections), this never was the plan, Stan

Up in alms like the Can-Can

In the middle of the street and you're beeping your horn like you're Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

I'm a madman on reflection

We both made promises, couple novices

Honestly like that's stating the obvious

Sounds like I resent you, equally mad

I'm just a little less mental (Reflections of us)That girl I used to know, where did she go, maybe I chased her away (Reflections of us)

That man I used to be no longer seen, maybe he wasted away (Reflections of us)

It's only now I can see what we became (Reflections of us)

Been over it now but I still can't breathe your name (Reflections of us)

Breathe your name

Breathe your name

Breathe your nameYo, (reflections), we're both looking loved-up

Except I'm looking at a photo, was back in Jan down at Koko

Lovely to so-so, love's now a no-show

Still got the vids of you freaking on GoPro

Kept me going when we'd faded

I can still picture it in slow-mo, ho-ho

Now it's Dorothy and Toto, over the rainbow

Still can't breathe your name though(Reflections of us)

(Reflections of us)

(Reflections of us)

But I still can't breathe your name

(Reflections)

Breathe your name

Breathe your name

Breathe your name

(Reflections) this never was the plan, Stan

Up in alms like the Can-Can

In the middle of the street and you're beeping your horn like you're Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

I'm a madman on reflection

We both made promises, couple novices

Honestly like that's stating the obvious
Sounds like I resent you, equally mad
I'm just a little less mental
