Perspective

In My Eyes

Am I the the fool
For holding in
All these words
And their value
Taken to heart
Lessons learned
I always felt
It was sacred
Understand our directions face separate ways
You just be the critic and I'll set the example by setting
My rules
Stuck between Expectations
That I set
And the set backs
In this perspective
I can see
I was given
A chance to speak up
I have to follow what's in myself
