

Hold Out Your Hand

Chris Squire

You can feel it coming
With the morning light
And you know the feelings
Gonna make you feel alright Almost close enough to
Hold out your hand
Span the distance, store resistance
To attack is to retreat All you've got to do is
Hold out your hand
For the treasures of the universe
Are lying at your feet You can hide it, lose it
But it's always found
You can laugh it off
But it always comes
Back on you, so true True is true enough to
Hold out your hand
Forward motion, life promotion
To reverse is to repeat All you've got to do is
Hold out your hand
For the treasures of the universe
Are lying at your feet Hold out your hand
Span the distance, store resistance
To attack is to retreat Almost close enough to
Hold out your hand
For the treasures of the universe
Are lying at your feet
