

Onward Into Battle

Katatonia

In the still eclipse
Every light is a heartbeat
In the spring
Where I watch
The sudden change I find this so hard [Chorus]
Onward into battle
Time is growing so dark around me
I, shallow one
Burn us out
Day by idle day Days at the sea
My words are incomplete
In the blind spot
Where I saw you
On the 4th at night I find this so hard [Chorus]
