

Boulevard of Broken Dreams

Brian Setzer

I don't wanna go to sleep and toss and turn all night
I don't wanna look up and see shadows like an evil light
I don't wanna get lost on a road so long
Your legs get tired and you fall into the ground
On the boulevard of broken dreams
I don't wanna get drunk just to sleep at night
My head starts spinnin' and I tremble with fright, yeah
Don't wanna get up and go to work each day
Crawl back home on my knees and pray
On the boulevard of broken dreams
I wonder where you are, are you satisfied, yeah?
To go through life with a chill in your soul
And a memory that lives by your side
Don't wanna hear no more, heard enough for one day, yeah
So take me on down where that rock 'n' roll plays, yeah
Don't wanna hear about how good you got it
When all my life, I've gone without it
On the boulevard of broken dreams, yeah
I wonder where you are, are you
satisfied, yeah
To go through life with a chill in your soul
And a memory that lives by your side
Don't wanna hear no more, heard enough for one day
So take me on down where that rock 'n' roll plays, yeah
Don't wanna get lost on a road so long
Your legs get tired and you fall into the ground
On the boulevard of broken dreams
On the boulevard of broken dreams
On the boulevard of broken dreams, yeah yeah yeah
