

unravel (Tokyo Ghoul OP)

Dima Lancaster

PRE-VERSE 1

I need to know, so could you show me
How I can make it work?

The animal inside is thirsting for a fight
With world that is so dull and broken,
It dies before my eyes

Fade out into the white
You smile, completely blind

VERSE 1

I'm lying here, drowning in my fears,
Can't take another breath

The truth and all, that I've known before is Now scaring me to death

Freeze

Unravel me and face my sins
Will you drive me to insanity?
I'm not the one I used to be

CHORUS

I'm falling apart in this world so devastated
I grow transparent, my soul's so faded
Don't try to find me, 'cause I'm not letting go
Of the mess I made here

Imaginary place that someone else created
You shouldn't be afraid of it, 'cause there's no pain here
So just keep me in your vivid memories

These precious memories...

POST-CHORUS

The void around devours me
It never stops, it never leaves
Reminding me of when I would laugh aloud so innocently

I'm paralyzed, I can't escape
I close my eyes and start to change
I'll break the wall and I'll stand tall to UNRAVEL IT ALL!!

BRIDGE

I'm changing inside, but I can still see the light that Will shine upon these dying days and challenges we'll have to face

Unravel me and face my sins
You can drive me to insanity
But I will never let you break me!

CHORUS

I'm falling apart in this world so devastated
I grow transparent, my soul's so faded
Don't try to find me, 'cause I'm not letting go
Of the mess I made here

Imaginary place that someone else created
You shouldn't be afraid of it, 'cause there's
no pain here
So just remember the one I used to be

Keep me in your memory

And don't forget me, just don't forget me
Just don't forget me, just don't forget me

Now that I've changed, I'm completely paralyzed
There's nothing I can change in my own little paradise
Remember the light you once saw in my eyes
