Brave Heart

Rick Riso

In a World full of Heartache No One needs Heart Break To many Nights have Found me Wrapped it's Cold and Lonely Arms around me And if I hear One more Sad Song About Broken Dreams and Lives gone Wrong I'll Swear that I'll go Crazy Because I Believe that Love can be Forever It

It takes A Brave Heart Strong and True to Stand behind the Words Baby I Love You a Brave Heart willing to Fight for that One Love for the Rest of their Life it takes a Brave Heart So many Temptations lead to Compromising Situations Words Spoken Easy in the Thrill of the Night are Ment to Please me

But I don't take Love Likely I need more then just a Body beside me More then a Feeling Because I Believe that Love can be Forever It takes a Brave Heart Strong and True to Stand behind the Words Baby I Love a Brave Heart willing to Fight for that One Love for the Rest of their Life it takes a Brave Heart

It takes a Brave Heart Against all the Odds thou against what Life can Play I need someone that is not Afraid to Stay a Brave Heart Strong and True to Stand behind the Words Baby I Love you a Brave Heart willing to Fight for that One Love for the Rest of their Life a Brave Heart Strong and True to Stand behind the Words Baby I Love A Brave Heart willing to Fight for that One Love for the Rest of their Life it takes a Brave Heart
