

Angeline

Bottom Feeders

Oh Angeline
Don't tell me not to stare
Oh Angeline
Well I know that you never cared, you never cared for me

I can see you across the room, I can see you in my dreams
There's a siren ravin in my brain, can't you hear it as is screams out Angeline
Oh Angeline

Oh Angeline
I can't help it when i stare
Oh Angeline
Well I know that you never cared, you never cared for me

Well I know I'll never have ya girl, no I'll never win your love
But every night I fall down on my knees and thank the lord above for Angeline
Oh my Angeline

You make me nervous
I want the pain
You leave me hungry
I feel ashamed oh Angeline
Oh my Angeline
