Dinner Last Night

O.A.R.

It's ok
If you lock yourself up at the end of the day
And it's alright
If you're gonna let us fade
To nothing
You worked harder for nothing at all
Are you alright?
She asked me deep after dinner last nightHold on man you gotta remember
Hold on man you gotta be strong
Hold on man you gotta remember
You gotta come back, you gotta be strongAre you ok?
You've been staring far in the days
Are you alright?
Have I given you enough?
Pick your pleasure
But be sure that it's what you want
Are you alright?
She asked me deep after dinner last nightHold on man you gotta remember
Hold on man you gotta be strong
Hold on man you gotta remember
You gotta come back, you gotta be strongHold on man you gotta remember
Hold on man you gotta be strong
Hold on manHold on man you gotta remember
Hold on man you gotta be strong
Hold on man you gotta remember
You gotta come back, you gotta be strongHold on man you gotta remember
Hold on man you gotta be strong
Hold on man
