

Finding Beauty

Ann Hampton Callaway

Finding beauty, the night we met you set me free
I fell in love and now I'm finding beauty
Look what your love has done to meI'm like a child is in wild anticipation
Love each new sensation
You've turned my blackened world to TechnicolorEverything around me conspires to astound me
Took the leap, took the dare beauties everywhereSomeone new is looking through my eyelashes
What to do everyday I spend with you
I'm a phoenix rising from the ashes
