Caught You Dancing

Steel Pulse

You were standing there
When I first laid eyes upon you
You were looking fair
When I first set eyes upon you
I was so scared to talk to you yeh
You hypnotised me withCHORUS
The music that you dancing to
The music that you dancing toMy lovely yes you've tricked me
My lovely you disowned meCHORUSUnto you I went
Like a lamb right to the slaughter
One and one makes two
I thought happiness ever after
I should have known it was one big fairy tale yeh
You hypnotised me withCHORUSSCAT
I was so scared to talk to you yeh
You mesmorised me with
The music that you dancing to
I caught you dancing
I I yeh I I yeh.
