

Ego

The Sounds

I've been dying to say this to you
And I don't know what else to do
I've see your fucking attitude
I've been doing someone that you know
It's not a secret to me anymore
Cause I've seen you glowing around my fame

With empty words our world collide
It was my ego telling me why
I never thought I'd say this to you
I lied about you,
Regrets are useless
Was it my ego telling me why?

I've been dying to say this to you
And I don't know what else to do
I've see your fucking attitude
I've been doing someone that you know
It's not a secret to me anymore
Cause I've seen you glowing around my fame

With empty words our world collide
It was my ego telling me why
You wanted someone who cared
With empty words our world collide
You needed someone to care
I never thought I'd say this to you
I lied about you,
Regrets are useless
Was it my ego telling me why?

With empty words our world collide
It was my ego telling me why
You wanted someone who cared
With empty words our world collide
You needed someone to care
It was my ego telling me why
I never thought I'd say this to you
I lied about you,
Regrets are useless

Was it my ego telling me,
Was it my ego telling me why?
