

Ruun

Enslaved

Have you ever seen beyond the reach?
Have you ever felt the change?
Visions from an altered state
They conceal and relevelateCommuning once again with Gods
Thread unto the impossible path
Talking with a different tongue
Heralding the unsungReach for them, see them turn awayHave you ever seen beyond the reach?
Have you ever felt the change?
Visions from an altered state
They conceal and relevelate
Fly away, chains undoneReach for them, see them turn awayDoors open wide
Step into the light
No turning back
Embrace the night
Breathe eternities
We are not alone
Never to return
Merge with the unknown
