

Y K W Y K

Matt Wertz

I used to run around
Overdrawing all my bank accounts
Buying flowers trying to figure out
Was it love? Did I mean it?
But it didn't help Yeah, I was all about the chase
But they always seemed to run away
Til I met the one who stopped the tracks
There was no looking back at anybody else
Cause you know when you know
You get that feeling when you hold her close
Just like you're dreaming
It feels like home
You know when you know, when you know You'll know it when the fire burns
Inside your heart it kinda feels good
Now all the sudden
Yeah, you're stopping traffic and ditching bad habits
She's your medicine Cause you know when you know
You get that feeling when you hold her close
Just like you're dreaming
It feels like home
You know when you know, when you know
When you just can't wait
You get excited just to see her face
And be beside her every single day
You know when you know, when you know
You know when you know
