

Keep On Sailing (LP Version)

Ian Matthews

There's an omen in the sky today
Keep on, keep on sailin'
I could always say I told you so
but I know you've never tried.
There's a spirit in the wind today
Keep on, keep on sailin'
Brother, can you feel
DÃ©jÃ vu goin' on through your bones?
I know the number
You can't take it on your own
And I saw the thunder
It fell down on the way home.
There's a Carolina moon today
Keep on, keep on sailin'
More the reason be your fadin' now
But you'll be back again someday.
There's an omen in the sky today
Keep on, keep on sailin'
I could always say I told you so
but I know you've never tried.
