Drove Me Wild

Tegan and Sara

When I think of you
I think of your skin
Golden brown from the sun
Your arms outstretched
Your hair cut shorter than it'd been
But still blowing in the windWhen I picture you I think of your smile
And it drives me wild
Your laugh escaping you, your head thrown to the side
And it drives me wildYou carried romance in the palm of your hand
You called the plays for us
You clung to self-restraint, you followed the plan
You put the brakes on thisAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wildAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wildWhen I envision you I think of your sheets, tangled up beneath me
Your body inching close, closer to the edge
I got a hold of you thenWhen I imagine you I think of that room
And it drives me wild
Your face relaxed, your voice a whisper in my ear
And it drives me wildYou carried romance in the palm of your hand
You called the plays for us
You clung to self-restraint, you followed the plan
You put the brakes on thisAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wildAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wildI would've had us swerving through those streets
Over and over
I would've stalled or rushed us through those greens
Over and overBut you knew that
(You drove me wild)
And you wouldn't let me lose control
(You drove me wild)
Control
(You drove me wild)You carried romance in the palm of your hand
You called the plays for us
You clung to self-restraint, you followed the plan
You put the brakes on thisAnd it drove me

And it drove me
And it drove me wildAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wildYou carried romance in the palm of your hand
You called the plays for us
You clung to self-restraint, you followed the plan
You put the brakes on thisAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wildAnd it drove me
And it drove me
And it drove me wild
