

Joseph Got His Tomb Back

Down East Boys

Imagine with me if you will, the day Jesus rose from the dead.

There was a knock at Joseph's door, so he rolled out of bed.

Well there a man stood with a message to bring, as he opened up the door.

He said, "The Lord is alive! Thanks again, he won't be needin' the tomb anymore!"

Only for a weekend did Jesus need the tomb.

Only 3 days was he dead in that room.

I wonder did he know that the Lord would rise?

Or was his resurrection a great big surprise?

When Joseph took his body and laid it in the grave,

Did he know it would only be for 3 days?

All we really know as a matter of fact,

Joseph got his tomb back!

Suppose Joseph went to the tomb that day on resurrection morn,

Expecting our Savior's body laying inside with a stone rolled in front of the door.

When he arrived, to his surprise, the stone had been rolled away!

Two men standing there dressed in white saying, "You can have your tomb back today!"

Yeah!

Well,!
