

AKA... Broken Arrow

Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds

A fallen angel
The broken arrow
She comforts me and eased my troubled mind

Shine a light out
Into the shadows
All the world they made me leave behind

Leave me peace I'm on the side of the angels
And if I die in a dream then
Let me live my life
But all lies they have told me
They make me wanna shiver
When I'm lost and I'm lonely
And that's not gonna ease my troubled mind

She wrote it over
A misty morning
Set the sail for where the four winds blow
She's a siren and I'm a warning
I'm here to say I never told you so

Leave me peace I'm on the side of the angels
If I die in a dream then
Let me live my life
But all the lies that they have told me
They make me wanna shiver
When I'm lost and I'm lonely
That's not gonna ease my troubled mind

Leave me peace I'm all alone with my angel
She's dying in a dream
So I could live my life
But all the lies that they have told me
They make me wanna shiver
When I'm lost and I'm lonely
And that's not gonna ease my troubled mind
That's not gonna ease my troubled mind

A fallen angel

A broken arrow
She comforts me and eased my troubled mind

Shine a light out
Into the shadows
All the world they made me leave behind
