

Leaving California

PJ Harvey & John Parish

California leaving
California
California leaving
CaliforniaNo one but me is walking under palms that give no shade
I'm leaving you todayCalifornia leave me
California
California leave me
California
How cruel was I to think that I could make you change?
Oh, give me some shade
Oh, England, come soon
How could I have believed that I could live and breathe in you?California killed me
California
California killed me
California
I think it's time to leave
I think it's time to leave
I told no one I'd stay
I think it's time to leave
