The Eyes Of A Fool

Bonnie Tyler

You tell me, there's nothing wrong
You say that there's nobody else
But you're looking into the eyes of a fool
You say, what you wanna say
And I'll sit here hoping it's true
But you're looking into the eyes of a fool
And when you say you really need me
You know, I'll come running
You know, I'll come running to you
And though you can't look into my eyes
And say what you're thinking
I go on believing in you
You tell me, there's nothing wrong
You say that there's nobody else
But you're looking into the eyes of a fool
And when you say you really need me
You know, I'll come running
You know, I'll come running to you
And though you can't look into my eyes
And say what you're thinking
I go on believing in you
You tell me, there's nothing wrong
You say that there's nobody else
But you're looking into the eyes of a fool
You say, what you wanna say
And I'll sit here hoping it's true
But you're looking into the eyes of a fool
You tell me, there's nothing wrong
You say that there's nobody else
But you're looking into the eyes of a fool
