

Coast To Coast

Kevin Toney

          Last stop for a resolution
          End of the line, is it confusion?
          So go, go see whats there for you
          Nothing new, nothing new for you to use
          I've got no new act to amuse you
          I've got no desire to use you, you know
                  But anything that I could do
          Would never be good enough for you
          If you can't help it then just leave it alone
                  Leave it alone, yeah, just forget it
          It's really easy, I believe I'll forget it too
                  Still you're keepin' me around
          'Til I finally drag us both down
                  Pullin' feathers out your hat
          Yes I believe that's where it's at
                  You belong, taggin' along
          And I belong in the zoo
          So I wait for confirmation
          That you're never gonna use your starting gun
                  Unless it's me it sounds like bein' in
                  Just wasn't that much fun
                  Anything that I could do
          Would never be good enough for you
          If you can't help it then just leave it alone
                  Leave it alone, yeah, just forget it
          It's really easy, I'll just forget it too
                  Coast to coast, coast to coast
          I'll do what I can, so you can be what you do
                  Coast to coast, coast to coast
          I'll do everything I can, so you can be what you do
                  Coast to coast, coast to coast
          Circuit rider comes every fifth Sunday
                  Oh my Lord, I fell asleep one day
                  Anything that I could do?
          Is there anything that I could do
          That someone doesn't do for you?
                  That someone didn't do for you
          That I haven't already done for you
                  That's right
