Quit Callin

Allen Stone

You used to be too used to having me around,
I would have followed you anywhere, you weren't anywhere to be found,
You stood me up when I had both knees on the ground,
Beggin' you please, listen to me, girl,
You just turned me down,You only want the things that,
That you can't have, you can't have,
And you only want me 'cause I don't want you back, so just,Quit callin' me,
I'm no longer hung up on you,
Quit callin' me,
'Cause you're not getting through,
I went all in and got nothing in return, so just,
Quit callin' me,
You dangled love and kept me hanging by a thread,
So tangled up inside them sheets in your bed,
You left me in the dark with words you left unsaid,
You played it cool, and I was your fool, no, no,
But that was then,You only want the things that,
That you can't have, you can't have,
And you only want me 'cause I don't want you back, so just,Quit callin' me,
I'm no longer hung up on you, yeah,
Quit callin' me,
'Cause you're not getting through,
And I went all in and got nothing in return, so just,
Quit callin' me,The more that I refuse to try,
The more you waste your time,
Trying to reach me on that dial, so just,
Quit callin' me,
No longer hung up on you,
Quit callin' me,
'Cause you're not getting through, no,
I went all in and got nothing in return, so just,
Quit callin' me,
I'm no longer hung up on you,
Quit callin' me,
'Cause you're not getting through,
I went all in and got nothing in return, so just,
Quit callin',
Quit callin',
Quit callin' me, yeah.
