

Midnight Crisis

Lux Occulta

It's so clear for the very first time
It's so close I can hardly believe
I wish I knew, what are these keys for
I wish I was lost in this labyrinth
I didn't ask for these visions
I didn't ask to hear the siren's voice
I wish I was deaf and blind
I wish I could sleep at night
