Ever So Sweet

The Early November

I just found a friend
in one of your lies
to treat me so nice
i can't believe my bones when they say so many things they tell me i am fine
believe me i, i tryOooh oooh oooh...Ever so sweet... you make this seem
the way things go
its not my fault
and i'll miss
i'll miss you so good through all of those nights we lost our way back homeEver so sweet you baked it in cakes for me.
What you left behind,
it hurts my teeth.
Bring in the past
with the postcards you sent for me.
Every line,
it brings me right back down.Can't you see the wall you built for me can't you see the wall you built for me can't you see the wall you built for meCause we're not special we're not special
we're not specialWell i'm not special i'm not specialEver so sweet
you baked it in cakes for me.
What you left behind,
it hurts my teeth.
Bring in the past
with the postcards you sent for me.
Every line,
it brings me right back down.
