Nothing Without You

Smokie Norful

I have no sun, no moon, no stars, no clouds
No day or night, nothing is right
If I don't have youI have no hills, no mountains, no valleys, no plains
No plateaus, nothing goes
If I don't have youThere is no reason any season of the year
To live without the one I love
And cherish so dear
And no amount of anything
Can replace the joy you bring
I have nothing, if I don't have youThere is no joy, no peace, no love for me
No one to care unconditionally
If I don't have youThere's no west, no east
No understanding, no peace
No one that makes my very heartbeat
If I don't have youI have no life, no death, no air to breathe
Not even a single thing to be
If I don't have youYou gave me everything I'd ever need
You are the true definement of my destinyEvery since you've been a part of my life
My whole world has changed
You see, there's nothing undone
There are no battles unwon
No burdens that we cannot overcomeYou are the beginning, you will surely be the last
My whole world starts and ends with youYou are the Alpha, you are the Omega
There is nothing that can take your placeWhen I think about all you've done for me
How you came and made my life complete
If it had not been for the Lord on my side
Without you Lord I surely would have diedI have nothing
Absolutely positively nothing
I have nothing if I don't have You
