Dragonfly

Yngwie Malmsteen

Let me tell youI'd rather live than just imagine
Don't think there is a way around
And if I fail I'll still be standing
With my feet firmly on the groundThrough my window from the sky flows a lullaby
Someone's waiting in my dream
Taking me to places I've never beenIf I had some wings then I could fly
In my dreams I am the dragonflyI guess I always will be searching
I live and learn from my mistakes
And all the love that I'm expecting
Is equal to the love I makeLittle dreamer when evening falls. shadows fall
Bring some honey for my soul
Take me to the places where I've never beenIf I had some wings then I could fly
In my dreams I am the dragonflyIf I had some wings then I could fly
In my dreams I am the dragonfly
