Lonely In The Night

Eric Johnson

Here she comes alone in the night
She looks in your eyes
While she's breaking your heartAnd her smile, it says Mona Lisa style
(Mona Lisa style)
She lends you her heart
Lets you think you're the only oneBut she'll leaves you lonely in the night
She breaks all her lovers' hearts tonight
Lonely in the night
You're dreaming of a love that fades awayWhen she wants, she get what she wants
She looks in your eyes
And you give her everythingSo demure
(She's so demure)
So insecure
(So insecure)
Oh, how she conceals all that she really feelsAnd she'll leave you lonely in the night
As she breaks another's heart
It's lonely in the night
You're dreaming of a love that fades(Lonely)
In the night
As she breaks another's heart
It's lonely in the night
And who will be the lonely one tonight?So lonely in the night
As she breaks another's heart
It's lonely in the night
Dreaming of a love that fadesLonely in the night
As she breaks another's heart
It's lonely in the night
The secret of her love is locked awayLonely in the night
Lonely in the night
