

Always And Never

Coheed And Cambria

If beauty sits the child's kiss of laughter I amend
Can you catch her if she runs?
With this I would share with you all of this count to no end
Behind your sealed eyes you miss all that I've done for you
Will you catch me when I run?
If timing plays evident, what will you say when you're late?
Stay with me and fall asleep
Pray to God for no bad dreams
Stay with me and fall asleep
Pray to God for no bad dreams
Here I'm, I'm still waiting here, my dear
For one kiss from you
So here I'm, I'm still waiting here, my dear
To kill all of you, to kill all of you
