Black Days Begin

Atreyu

We're all hellbent on destruction
Try to erase black spots on our soul
Hide from a violent eruption
Cataclysmic engulfing us all
Maybe
(Maybe)
Tonight
(Tonight)
We'll burn up the things that come for us all
You're body, it taunts me
Your flesh is oh so haunting
Children of the night
Throw your hands up in the air
We all know we've lost the fight
Hope dies out and we can see the end
Black days begin
Walk down this path of temptation
Deny the flesh, ignore what's crawling below
Stay true
(Stay true)
Stay gold
(Stay gold)
We'll burn up the things that come for us all
You're body, it taunts me
Your flesh is oh so haunting
Children of the night
Throw your hands up in the air
We all know we've lost the fight
Hope dies out and we can see the end
Black days begin
You're body, it taunts me
Your flesh is oh so haunting
Children of the night
Throw your hands up in the air
We all know we've lost the fight
Hope dies out and we can see the end
Children of the night
Throw your hands up in the air
We all know we've lost the fight

Hope dies out and we can see the end
Black days begin
