

Holding All the Roses

Blackberry Smoke

You look like you've seen a ghost
I don't think it's even gonna be close
Your rabbit's foot and your four leaf clover
Throw them away and start all over Here I am see me comin' around
Swinging out wide with the hammer down
There I go watch me leave you behind
Holding all the roses on the other side The odds against me were 20 to 1
Carry that weight like it weighs a ton
Ain't no luck in a gasoline rainbow
Come on drop that rag away we go Here I am see me comin' around
Swinging out wide with the hammer down
There I go watch me leave you behind
Holding all the roses on the other side
