Upstairs

Lost in the Trees

I have awoken with red hands around my face stumble through the dark I stumble through the darktheir prisms in the eyes of angels circling tell me who you are?
and where will I go now?
when my world is cold and broken
will the sea pour?
when the moon's blood falls
and opens up the earth
will the sun rise?
don't let me fall apart
don't let me fall apartI tell my secrets you can tell me what they mean you can light 'em up you can light 'em upAnd I'm trapped upstairs below the red beast wandering it's never giving up
and where will I go now?
will the sea pour?
when the moon blood falls
there's a sunrise
