

Pointless Protest

Corey Cyr

You point your finger
Like a gun to trigger
The one at the top of the hill.
Though you have two eyes
You're blind not to realize
It's not just the one on the (dollar) bill. You say he's the one
Who gets the job done
He's demon of this dominion.
But it's a whole group of fools
Who make all our rules
You've fallen to the blind opinion. You say he's the guy
In charge of "our" side
The one who can't be reached
But it's not just his fault
The entire congressional vault
Should be getting impeached. And of course on that note
He does have a vote
He can choose what he wants to do
Yes he may be an asshole
But its not just that so
We leave the rest up too you.
