

Thousand Pieces (feat. FABvL & Vinny Noose)

Rockit Gaming

I've always been a little different
They would call me names
Another misfit in the corner
Looks a little strange
My mother prayed that I'd be accepted
That my life would change
Took me to the camp she wanted more
That woman was a saint

I drowned slow
Lungs screaming for air
The faces of the kids chuckled
While I flailed in despair
Staff was unaware
Pre-occupied with "teenage affairs"
I died alone
No help
I'm thinkin' nobody cared

But now I'm back seekin' vengeance
For my mother she passed
Got murdered by the counselors
That left me stranded to ash
So now I'll hack smash bash
All your skulls into mash
After I rip your limbs off
Hear the bones as they crack
Imma snap

Got you panicked
I can hear your heart racin'
The one that says in the dark
Makes you sgiver when I'm Chasin'
Rip your eyes out
Keep em' pickled in a mason
Mask look familiar
You're squarin' up with Jason

Tie a rope around your throat
Crystal lake breeds killers

I ripped your heart into a thousand pieces
Sold my soul
When mother croaked
Don't call me a sinner
I ripped your heart into a thousand pieces

My blade is ready
This machete's gonna get its fix
I'll snap your neck
Your spinal cord ain't lookin' very thick
Don't try to run I've seen it all
Learned every single trick
Begging for your life will light a fire
Talking every wick

I've seen the devil been to hell
And fought the best
Beaten Freddy think you're ready
Feel the pain inside your chest
Game of chess
All the moves make effectin' what comes next
Laid to rest
You really don't wanna fail this little test

Im the best
Blood thirsty
With the strength of 20 men
Shovel a snake through your skull
Looks how far your body bends
Don't pretend
You ain't doubtin'
That you'll die before the end

Decapitate you
Stick your head up on display
I'm not your friend
That'll send
Such a vivid message
Out to Crystal lake
To the counselors and campers
That betrayed my family's

Tie a rope around your throat

Sold my soul
When mother croaked
I ripped your heart into a thousand pieces

I ripped your heart
I ripped your heart
I ripped your heart
I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart

Tie a rope around your throat
I ripped your heart into a thousand pieces
Sold my soul
When mother croaked
I ripped your heart into a thousand pieces

I ripped your heart
I ripped your heart
I ripped your heart
I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
(Thousand pieces) I ripped your heart
