Run

Willie Nile

I've got the pulse of the universe pumping through my vein
I've got the sound of the stratosphere beating in my brain
I've got the colors of the rainbow on a palette of blue
I've got the call of the wild here waiting for youThe trains pulling out at a quarter to five
I don't even know if I'm dead or alive
Heading for Infinity writing on the run
Looking for adventure baby do you want to come and
Run to the far off places
Run where they leave no traces
Run where the visions are many
Run when you don't have any
Run from the streets of sadness
Run away from all this madness
Run to the Cosmic Sea and
Run and run away with me and runI've got a ticket for a journey across space and time
I've got the secrets of the Buddha in this heart of mine
You'll have the sounds of the city whispering in your ear
You'll hear the hum of the universe loud and clear
The planes taking off at six AM
You only live once no you don't live again
Everybody's looking for the safe way out
Not me no no I want to scream and shout and
Run to the far off places
Run where they leave no traces
Run where the visions are many
Run when you don't have any
Run through the aisles of danger
Run from the arms of a stranger
Run to the Cosmic Sea and
